

Iceland Award #5255: Inter-American Studies

Country: Republic of Iceland

Grant Activity: Teaching or teaching/research

Grant Length: Three to five months

Location: University of Iceland, Reykjavik

Award Requirements:

- Professional profile: Open to academics (all levels except early career).
- Degree requirements: PhD required.
- Language requirements: All work will be conducted in English.

Grant Activity:

- Teach graduate courses and provide input on curriculum development. The University's Graduate Program in Inter-American Studies will launch Fall 2014.

University of Iceland:

- Oldest and largest university in the country, founded in 1911.
- Vigdis Finnbogadottir Institute of Foreign Languages is the main research center in area and language studies in Iceland.

A complete award description, profile of the university, and list of application requirements can be found here in the catalog of awards.

The Council for International Exchange of Scholars administers the Fulbright Scholar Program on behalf of the U.S. Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. More information about the Fulbright Scholar Program can be found on the CIES website, <http://www.cies.org/>, and the complete catalog of awards can be accessed online at <http://catalog.cies.org/>. As outlined in the Eligibility Guidelines, all applicants must be U.S. citizens.

Please feel free to share this information with colleagues, as well as listservs, newsletters, associations, or social media networks.

The current competition will close on August 1, 2014.